

In Memory of Tyde Lehman

Sweet, good natured little Tyde passed away yesterday, November 6th, 2008. Tyde is fondly remembered by all his friends and customers from Sasha's Suds n' Duds. He was one of our first customers when we opened the store in 2004. Tyde and his mom, Amy, soon became regulars at Sasha's, and made many friends with all the other dogs.

Amy rescued Tyde in 2004, and it was love at first sight. The fact that Tyde only had one eye, didn't faze either him or Amy. In fact, it was part of his charm. "I'm keeping an eye on you" was his favorite joke....if dogs could talk, that is.

In his short lifetime, Tyde accomplished many things. He was a model with Sasha for one of our PaperCity Magazine ads, he flew on an airplane four times, he walked on the beach in Santa Monica, California, (and got kicked off), visited Keanu Reeves star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, had his picture taken with Santa, survived a hurricane, and moved to Sacramento, California.

Tyde is survived by his loving mom, Amy, and his little sister, Soshi. He will forever be remembered and loved by everyone who knew him.

Sweet dreams Tyde, we hope you chase lots of ducks around the Big Duck Pond in the Sky.
